Join us to learn the concepts of implicit bias, stereotyping, prejudice, and discrimination, and how to use this knowledge in your parenting. This class is appropriate for parents / caregivers of children and teens.

Sessions One and Two

Explore how racism and other forms of discrimination appear in your community and how to teach your children/youth about them. Build communication skills to connect across differences and address discrimination.

Sessions Three and Four

Practice addressing challenging scenarios that families face around bias, discrimination, and acts of exclusion.
